1. Inside of a WebEx session, there are five main panels that appear on the right side of the screen. This self-instructional will walk you through the Participants Panel. This panel is always in the first shown in the column.

View participants in full screen mode

A preview of your webcam image

A green video camera symbol represents an active webcam

A red microphone symbol represents a muted microphone, click to unmute

Symbol representing participant is in a group

Emoticon example representing

The green check interactive button was clicked by participant

Red exclamation point shows participants who have clicked out of WebEx

Visible only to the Host and Current Presenter

Participants have raised their hand. The number represents the order hands have been raised.